(Hudson, Ohio, USA / October 23, 2008) – In recognition of the economic power of multicultural businesses, DiversityBusiness.com, the nations' leading multicultural internet site, recently named Radcom, Inc. as one of the "Top 500 Emerging Businesses in the United States (Div500)". The Div500 is the 8th annual listing of the Nation's top 500 emerging businesses. Div500 members are sought after by major corporations wishing to increase spending with small and diversity owned companies.

"Small businesses and consumers are a growing force in the U.S. economy, and a force to be reckoned with," said Kenton Clarke, CEO of Computer Consulting Associates International, the company that built DiversityBusiness.com. This is a whole business segment that can carry its own, that provides jobs, products and services, and generates wealth for their communities. These are the new leaders in American business."

The Div500 is a classification that represents the top 500 emerging businesses in the U.S., in sectors such as technology, manufacturing, food service and professional services. Large organizational buyers throughout the country that do business with multicultural and women-owned businesses use the list. The Div500 is produced annually by DiversityBusiness.com, the nation's leading multicultural B2B Internet portal that links large organizational buyers to multicultural product and service suppliers.

"As a woman-owned company, we are very grateful for organizations like DiversityBusiness.com that help us become a more effective organization," said Angie Dianetti, Vice-President of Radcom, Inc. Radcom was honored at a special awards ceremony at DiversityBusiness.com's "8th Annual Multicultural Business Conference", at Disney's BoardWalk Resort in Orlando, Florida.
